First Digital Newsletter

Welcome to our first newsletter

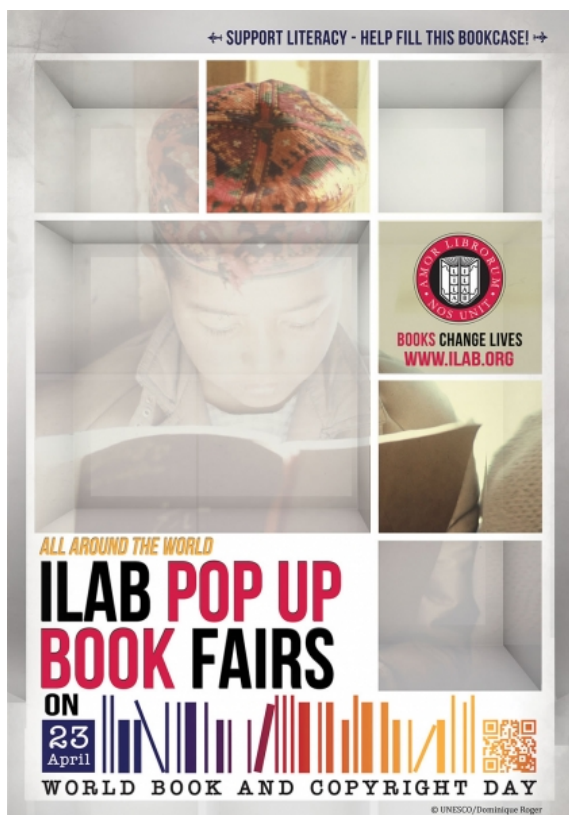

We are very pleased to send you Antiquariaat A.G. van der Steur's first newsletter. We have been very busy over the last couple of months and have launched a new facebook page: www.facebook.com/antiquariaatvandersteur. We would appreciate it if you would "like" us on facebook so that you always know the up and coming activities.

We are putting more and more prints online and are building a new webshop for them on www.antiquariaatvandersteur.nl.

We are also putting more and more books and manuscripts online on www.vandersteur.nl (which updates the databases of antiqbook, boekwinkeltjes, ilab, nvva and abebooks).

We are joining ILAB's (ilab.org) worldwide initiative of Antiquarian Book Shops to raise money to help UNESCO fight illiteracy. You are welcome this Thursday April 23 @Perron 3a of Haarlem Centraal Station to join our Pop up Rare Book Market. Please read on for more information.

23 april 2015

ILAB pop up BOOK FAIR

Haarlem Station / Perron 3a
from 15.00-18.00

We are collaborating with Antiquariaat De Vries & De Vries and auction house Bubb Kuyper to organise a Pop Up Rare Book Market at Haarlem Central Station. This Thursday April 23, you are invited in the beautiful waiting room of Haarlem Central Station to browse through our rare books and prints from 15.00-18.00. From 17.00-18.00 there will be a free valuation of rare books and prints by Veilinghuis Bubb Kuyper. For info of other pop-up book markets (Groningen, Amsterdam, Antwerpen, or further away) please visit www.nvva.nl.

Alba Amicorum

catalogue

Our founder Ab van der Steur collected many beautiful alba amicorum. His daughter Arine recently produced a catalogue of these alba amicorum. Click on the cover to browse through the catalogue. If you would like a free digital copy please email us at: antiquariaat@vandersteur.nl.

Please check the website (www.vandersteur.nl) for the recent availability of the alba amicorum.
